

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY – COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING

GENERAL EDUCATION

2021-2022

The following course list is approved for students admitted to The Ohio State University (any program) in Summer 2021, Autumn 2021, or Spring 2022. Students admitted to Ohio State earlier than Summer 2021 or later than Spring 2022 should contact their academic advisor to receive a copy of their general education requirements.

GENERAL EDUCATION

Ohio State's General Education (Gen Ed) is an integral part of your academic experience in the College of Engineering. This curriculum is designed to provide you with a better understanding of society's traditions and past, accomplishments and aspirations, relation and responsibility to the natural world, diversity and plurality, and problems and needs. The goal is for you to develop skills, competencies, and a breadth of knowledge as an educated, productive citizen. Specific goals aimed toward the broader goal of the Gen Ed are listed under each category of the curriculum.

Major Specific Gen Ed Courses

¹ECON 2001.XX is required for Aviation, Civil, Environmental Engineering (Social Science Subgroup C)

Course Selection

Some courses are listed in multiple Gen Ed categories. With the exception of two categories (Professional Ethics and Diversity), each Gen Ed course can be used to fulfill only one (1) Gen Ed category. Professional Ethics and Diversity can be used to fulfill an additional Gen Ed category in which it is cross listed. See page 3 for more information regarding Professional Ethics and Diversity course options.

Honors and Service Learning Courses

Certain Gen Ed courses are offered as service-learning, honors, and/or honors embedded courses.

H = Honors E = Honors Embedded S = Service Learning

If the notation is in parentheses, course is offered in the standard version and in the version indicated.

WRITING AND RELATED SKILLS (6 hr) Select TWO courses, one per subgroup.

DIVERSITY (0-3 hr) Select ONE course. This category permits overlap with another Gen Ed course.

The goal of courses in this category is to foster an understanding of the pluralistic nature of institutions, society, and culture. Students can choose a diversity focus of either Social Diversity in the U.S. or Global Diversity.

Courses: Social Diversity in the US courses are underlined as “___”. Global Diversity courses are underlined as “~~~~”. All underlined courses in other categories will fulfill both that designated category and the Diversity category. Students who do not appropriately plan their coursework to fulfill one of their Gen Ed categories with a Diversity course will be required to take an additional course to fulfill their Diversity category.

APPROVED GENERAL EDUCATION SUBSTITUTIONSForeign Language

Students pursuing a degree in the College of Engineering are not required to complete a foreign language category in their General Education. However, students who are interested in pursuing coursework in a foreign language are permitted the following approved substitutions:

- Foreign Language 1103 Course: credit (including EM) for a foreign language sequence through 1103, or credit for a foreign language course with a prerequisite of 1103, can be used to satisfy the Cultures & Ideas Gen Ed category.
- Foreign Language Minor Courses: completion of a foreign language minor permits a student to overlap up to 6 credit hours between the Gen Ed and minor. A curricular petition must be submitted to the student's program, which will forward it to the college for review. The courses must meet the spirit of the Gen Ed category for which overlap is requested.
